FRIDAY NIGHT SPEAKER:

Dr. Randy Valimont, senior pastor of First Assembly of God in Griffin, Georgia, is a native of Johnson City, New York. He is married to Jelly Jordan Valimont. They have three daughters, Jordan, Danielle, and Alayna. The Valimonts are both graduates of Southeastern University of Lakeland, Florida. In 2008 Pastor Valimont was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Southern Asia Bible College of Bangalore, India. He received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Beulah Heights University of Atlanta, GA in 2007 and earned a Doctor of Religious Philosophy degree in 2006 from Logos Graduate School of Jacksonville, FL. In 1993, they relocated to Griffin, Georgia where they accepted the position as senior pastor of Griffin First Assembly of God.

During Pastor Valimont's ministry at Griffin First Assembly, more than twenty thousand souls have dedicated their lives to Jesus Christ through the ministries of the church. The church has grown from 400 to over 4,200 in Sunday morning worship attendance. In 1995, under his direction, Fresh Touch, a radio and television ministry was launched. The television and radio ministry currently reaches across the United States of America as well as in foreign countries. Pastor Valimont has served on the World Missions Board of the Assemblies of God, Georgia District Missions Director and as an Executive Presbyterian of the Georgia District Assemblies of God. Currently, he is a General Presbyterian for the General Council of the Assemblies of God. In addition to these responsibilities, Pastor Valimont serves on the following boards: Global University, Global Teen Challenge, and Emerge Ministries, as well as serving on committees and boards of the General Council.

Pastor Valimont has preached in more than forty nations and has been featured on the Injoy Life Club, the 700 Club, American Family Radio, Global Pastors Network, and Trinity Broadcasting Network. His most recent book is Finding Significance in an Insignificant Place, published in 2006.

SATURDAY MORNING SPEAKER:

Dr. Michael Stewart is currently the president of Emmanuel College in Franklin Springs, Georgia. He became the college's eighth president in 2005. During his administration the school has experienced tremendous growth of its student body population as well as the physical plant of the college itself.

Dr. Stewart is an ordained minister within the International Pentecostal Holiness Church and serves on the IPHC General Ministry Council. He has distinguished himself also as a successful pastor and church leader. He is a 1979 graduate of the Emmanuel College School of Christian Ministries and also holds a M.A. in Counseling from Liberty University. In addition he earned a graduate certificate from the Beeson Institute of Advanced Church Leadership of Asbury Theological Seminary as well as a Doctor of Ministry degree from the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary. He is married to Pam Boggs Stewart who also is a graduate of Emmanuel College. They have two grown sons, Justin and Joshua. Dr. Stewart is a both a dynamic speaker and seminar presenter.
