GATLINBURG, TN

Beth Stephens-Johnson

was born and raised with roots running deep in Pentecost. She accepted the call to preach at a young age and has shared the gospel for over 30 years across the United States and abroad. She has served the Kingdom during these years as a youth pastor, associate pastor, full-time evangelist and is currently serving as co-pastor alongside her husband in Griffin, Georgia. Beth and Curt married in 2013, and seven years later, they launched a new ministry, The Calling, with a mission to mentor young ministers.

Jessica Williams & Family

from Florence, South Carolina, have been in ministry for over 30 years, leading churches, conferences, and camp meetings in worship. They have a heart to see people enter into the presence of God. This anointed family ministry started over 40 years ago with Fred and Ann Williams and continues into the third generation. Jessica and Stan Williams picked up the mantle for this ministry 27 years ago with Stan's sister, Mindy, and her husband, Zach Osborne. Now Fred and Ann Williams' grandchildren, Darren, Joshua, Matthew, their wives, and Anna Marie, have the privilege to carry on this great ministry.

Priscilla Willingham

began preaching when she was eleven. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Church Ministries from Southeastern University in 2009.

For ten years, she served as youth pastor at Sanderson CHC. In 2022, she graduated with a Master of Divinity from SEU. She is now co-pastoring Grace Life Church in Palatka, Florida, with her husband, Brandon.

Crystal Taylor

Joshlyn & Jordan

Crystal Taylor is an ordained minister with the Congregational Holiness Church and has served in ministry within the CHC for over 25 years. She's currently serving as the Women's Ministries Executive Director for the Florida District and is the First Lady of the Oceanway CHC. Her most treasured role is being Mommy to her sassy sidekick, Lydia, who is also a great help in ministry.

Joshlyn Vaughn is an elementary teacher in Spalding County. She graduated from Emmanuel University with her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. Joshlyn and her husband serve at West Sunnyside Community Church in children's ministry, Missionettes, and the youth department.

Jordan Carter is an elementary music teacher in White County. She graduated from Emmanuel University with her bachelor's degree in Music Education and is currently working on her Master's degree in Music Education at the University of Georgia. She now leads worship at Latter Rains CHC in Clarkesville, Ga.

Haven Gentry

Rebecca Crews

Amanda Anderson

Haven Gentry has spoken at numerous revivals, ladies' conferences, and ministered in song over multiple media outlets for the past decade. Her objective is that through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will be led into our kingdom destiny.

Rebecca Crews is an elementary school teacher, pastor's wife, and the Christian Education Director for the Florida District of the CHC. She teaches young adults and ladies bible studies at her church and has a passion for discipleship and community outreach.

Amanda Anderson is an ordained minister with the Congregational Holiness Church. She has served as a children's ministry director, Youth Pastor, outreach coordinator and now is the co-pastor of Latter Rains CHC in Clarkesville, GA. She has led a mentorship group for the last four years because she is passionate about mentoring young Christian women to become strong disciples of Jesus.

"My dear Ladies, it is time to 'Let God Arise' in our hearts and actions. Please allow me to encourage you to use the gifts and talents that God has given you. By using these gifts and talents, we will 'Let God Arise.'" -Rev. Wanda Murray and her family serve locally in their home church, City Church. Michelle is passionate about women's ministry, leading and teaching the ladies Bible studies.

She has published a Christian planner to encourage others to create spiritual disciplines and habits that enable them to live a God-first life and inspire them to live out God's call on their life. Michelle and her sister in the faith, Pam Baker, have published a women's Bible study, Brazen to Bombshell, encouraging women to find freedom and become all God created them to be.

is the Minister of Music at Assembly of Praise in Lula, Georgia. An accomplished musician and singer, she is also an educator with 15 years of experience, currently serving as a high school instructional coach.

She is working towards her Ph.D. in Gifted and Creative Education at the University of Georgia. She is married to Rhett, and they have two amazing sons who love Jesus.
